NE WYORK, Dec. 16. The Baroness Lisette de Kapri, sometimes known as Lisette von Kapri, widely known woman flyer who was taken into custody a week ago by Federal agents in the alien roundup, has been released from Ellis Island on instructions from the State Department at Washington.

The baroness is a native of Rumania and a citizen of Switzerland. Two years ago she was received by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt at the White House before starting an 11,000-mile plane tour of this country and Mexico.
